DEATH OF NON EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR BILL KABLE

Tungsten Mining NL (“Tungsten”) advises with great sadness the death of non-executive director, Charlton William (Bill) Kable, aged 62, over the weekend.

Bill was appointed to the Board on 22 May 2012, and during his time with Tungsten, his corporate development and project evaluation acumen was instrumental in the continuing development of the Kilba project, located inland from Onslow in the Gascoyne District of Western Australia. He brought to Tungsten an experience in tungsten business establishment and potential project assessment, having served on the board of directors of various companies in both an executive and non-executive capacity, as well as in the broader resource industry as a specialist in project evaluation and assessment.

Bill was well respected and very well liked and will be greatly missed by us all.

On behalf of the Tungsten Board of Directors, staff and consultants, I extend our deepest sympathy to Bill’s family, colleagues and friends. Funeral details will be advised in due course.
